1. Spent 2½ hours with DCI, DD/P, [REDACTED] Discussed the general estimate of the effects of Stalin's death and the new government set-up. Heard, second hand, [REDACTED] appreciation. At DCI's direction undertook to convey the salient thoughts to AD/NE for consideration for incorporation in SE-39.

2. Raised with DCI the question of Chairmanship of the Career Service Board and found him favorable to the suggestion that Kirkpatrick might take this on as a major task.

3. Gave DCI a background fill-in on the development of SE-37 and pointed out the necessity for our developing a technique to overcome the "high-low" attack technique of the services: working level erosion of the paper until maximum concessions have been made by the Board followed by a general demurrer by the IAC member.
